First Generation

1. Lewis Bolin was born about 1783.

Has been said that Lewis left his family after the War of 1812.

From the IGI records of the LDS, there is a marriage of Lewis Bolin to Tempy Hardin that took place in Cabarrus Co, North Carolina on 27 Jun, 1799. The bondsmen for the marriage was Gabriel Harden, and the witness was John Simianer.

Lewis Bolin may have been somehow related to the Bouldin family of the Hills Creek area of southern Warren County, Tennessee. His widow's name was spelled Bouldin on a census record, which unfortunately has led many to believe that she was the widow of either Gideon Bouldin or Noble Bouldin. The name of the wife(s) of Noble Bouldin is(are) unknown, and Gideon Bouldin was only married once, to Mary Thompson.

Another source has Lewis being listed as Nathan Boulden on the 1820 census in Warren County, Tennessee. The ages of the children do closely match but are short a few children, but there is nothing to substantiate this as being Lewis.

Noble Bouldin is found in 1820 in York, South Carolina.

In a short biography of his grandson, Harris Bradford Cope, written in a book covering the history of Wright County, Missouri, it states the parents of Comfort Bolin and Lewis & Temperance Bouldin. It seemed Lewis ended up in Texas during or after the war with Mexico, and that he wrote home, telling his descendants to come to Texas, as he has land for them. But he was never heard from again.

Please note, that in the papers of Thomas Jefferson Barnes, a noted genealogist & historian of Warren County, Tennessee, never connected the family of Lewis Bolin/Bouldin to the family of Noble Bouldin.

Lewis married Temperance Martha Hardin. Temperance was born in 1779. She died in Aug 1860 in Grundy Co, Tennessee.

On the 1830 census, she is living in Warren Co, Tennessee. In her household are eight others. Two males (1-age 10-15, 1-age 20-30) and seven females (1-age 10-15, 2-age 15-20, 3-age 20-30, 1-40-50). Temperance is listed as being between 40-50 years old. In 1840 in Warren County she has in her household 3 males (2 under 5 years old, 1 between 20 & 30) and 5 females (1 between 10 & 15, 1 between 15 & 20, 2 between 20 & 30, and 1 between 60 & 70). In both census records the family's near her were the Walker, Lockhart, Tate, and Gross. In 1830, her son David was listed on same page, while in 1840, he was in same county, but probably near by compared to simialr family names as found by his mother.

Since later cnesus records in 1850 & 860 state she was born c1779, this would explain the diference in age brackets on the 1830 & 1840 census. The 1840 census was probably done later in the year, and she may have had her birthday in the months of teh eyar between when the two census's were taken.

So there were probably more children whose names we do not have, that probably reached adulthood. In all probabbulity, the daughters married local men, their maiden names being lost with time. Probably the only way to determine lineage, is for MtDNA testing of the females in the county, with results compared to a direct line female descendent of Comfort Bolin Cope.

In contrast, the census for Noble Bouldin of the Hill Creek area of Warren County, Tennessee, in 1830 lists the oldest female as being between 60 to 70 years of age, the same age range for Noble as well, showing that the Temperance Bolin in hte 1830, 1840, 1850 and 1860 census records was not the wife of Noble.

Lewis and Temperance had the following known children:

LEADING CITIZEN SUCCUMBS TO HEART ATTACK

J. V. Bouldin, 65, McMinnville business man and church leader died at his home on Lind street at 10 o'clock Tuesday night as a result of a heart attack.

He had been feeling as well as usual on Tuesday and had been at his place of business. About 9:45 that night he had a heart attack at his home and died fifteen minutes later before his physician arrived. Mr. Bouldin had been suffering from a heart ailment for the past three or four years.

James Virgil Bouldin, son of the late James Bouldin and Parslee McGregor Bouldin, was born in Warren county May 8, 1880. When he was a small boy his father died and left his widowed mother and grandmother dependent upon him for a livelihood. His honesty and industrious habit soon attracted the firm of Mead & DeBard at Shellsford and they employed him as a clerk in their store at that place. After the firm discontinued its lumber business and the owners returned to their former homes in New York, Mr. Bouldin was left in charge of their mercantile business which he later purchased from them. He continued to operate the store at Shellsford for several years, then sold it and became associated with the Montgomery Produce company in McMinnville. He later purchased a half interest in the business and the firm was operated for several years under the name of Montgomery & Bouldin. When the late W. A. Passmore purchased the interest of Mr. Montgomery the firm was operated as Passmore & Bouldin until Mr. Passmore's death several months ago. The interest of Mr. Passmore in the business was purchased by Mr. Bouldin and his son-in-law, Boyd Dixon, and since it has been operated under the firm name of Bouldin & Dixon.

Mr. Bouldin has always been very active in the religious life of McMinnville. For almost a third of a century he has been a member of the board of stewards of the First Methodist Church, having served as chairman and treasurer for a number of years. He was also a member of the board of trustees of the church at the time of his death. Mr. Bouldin was always present at the Sunday school, all church services, the mid-week service and at the meeting of the officials board of which he was a member, at the Methodist church. He also served a number of years as district steward of the church and was frequently a delegate to the conferences.

Mr. Bouldin was always known for his interest in the religious affairs of the community his honesty and loyalty, and always looked after his own business and never criticized the shortcomings of his fellowmen.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Della Cope Bouldin, and a daughter, Mrs. Boyd Dixon, both of McMinnville.

The funeral was held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the First Methodist Church with the pastor, Rev. J. B. Spurlock officiating. Burial was in the Mountain View cemetery.

Active pallbearers were Virgil Farless, James A. Mullican, Fred J. Fults, Charles Row, Grady Womack
